2 Bedrooms
House - Mews

1A The Mews is a property that is difficult to compare with anything else. Full of genuine character, charm and individuality, it combines a traditional feel with well proportioned accommodation and, perhaps most importantly, a beautiful wrap around garden which the current owners have clearly cherished and thoughtfully maintained.

The property retains a number of attractive original and bespoke features, including original flagstone flooring, a bespoke oak staircase and slate tiled flooring to the kitchen. The ground floor provides a welcoming lounge with a feature wood burning stove with Bath stone surround, traditional flagstone flooring and double doors opening directly onto the garden. The generous kitchen and dining area provides excellent everyday living and entertaining space, with quartz work surfaces, a range of wall and base units and attractive arched windows overlooking the front aspect.

Upstairs, there are two well proportioned double bedrooms together with a modern family bathroom. The landing is particularly spacious and is currently utilised as an open plan study. This area was previously used as a third bedroom and could potentially be reinstated, subject to any necessary works and permissions.

The outside space is undoubtedly one of the property's greatest attractions. The beautifully landscaped wrap around garden is private, established and wonderfully secluded, with dwarf walls creating well stocked borders and a series of areas that lend themselves perfectly to sitting out, entertaining and enjoying the garden throughout the year. There is also power and lighting, making the garden both practical and enjoyable.

The garden enjoys an unusually attractive outlook over the playing fields of Howell's School, adding to the sense of space and tranquillity. It is the combination of the garden, the outlook and the property's position at the head of the private road that gives 1A The Mews its particularly special atmosphere.

This is a home that feels tucked away from the outside world, yet remains exceptionally well placed for everything that Llandaff has to offer. Located within this highly regarded area of Cardiff, the property is ideally positioned for excellent local amenities, highly regarded schools, public transport links and the Taff Trail.

For those looking for something a little different, with genuine character, privacy and a wonderful garden, 1A The Mews represents a particularly rare opportunity.
