About the property

Why we would buy this home:

A Timeless Haven in Olde Hanwell:

Nestled within the historic, leafy enclave of Olde Hanwell, this beautiful semi-detached cottage is a masterclass in elegant living. A perfect marriage of classic character and contemporary luxury, the home boasts a fantastic specification throughout. Every corner speaks to thoughtful design, offering a sophisticated yet deeply welcoming sanctuary from the bustle of the outside world.

Sun-Drenched Gardens & Private Parking:

Step outside into your own private oases. The property features sunny private front and rear gardens, beautifully arranged to catch the light throughout the day. Whether you are enjoying a quiet morning coffee amid the blooms or hosting twilight dinners, these private outside spaces offer a peaceful escape. Adding to the effortless convenience of the home is a private driveway, providing coveted, allocated off-street parking - a rare luxury that ensures a seamless return home.
