Set in a popular cul-de-sac moments from Cobham High Street, this handsome neo-Georgian family home offers spacious accommodation across two floors, ideal for family living and entertaining. A paved driveway provides ample parking in front of a large integral garage. The ground floor features an entrance hall, study, and a dual-aspect reception room with fireplace and double doors to the rear patio and lawned gardens. There is a separate dining room, a breakfast room with charming orangery opening to the garden, and a kitchen with scope to create a larger kitchen/family room, plus utility room and cloakroom. Upstairs are six double bedrooms and five bathrooms, four en-suite. The mainline station, boutiques, cafes and restaurants are close by, as are the River Mole and Tilt Conservation Area. Schools include Reed's, Parkside, ACS Cobham, Feltonfleet and Danes Hill, with easy A3/M25 access to London, Gatwick and Heathrow.
