THE PROPERTY

Sundays is a superbly appointed Detached beachfront house and Annexe with versatile accommodation and a bright and airy atmosphere throughout, located in highly sought after private road. The main house has a fabulous first floor wide balcony with magnificent south aspect sea views and there is a separate beachfront enclosed walled beach terrace. Sundays would make a fantastic multi generational holiday home, or primary home with annexe for parents or independent children, or generate additional income. The current owners have been letting the annexe as a successful Airbnb holiday let. The annexe has dual use planning as an annexe to the main house or for use as a holiday let. The main house and annexe, whilst being on the same land registry, are separately assessed for council tax purposes. The Main House is currently a band E and the annexe is reverting back from holiday let business rates to a council tax band and as yet the band is unconfirmed but was previously a band B. Upon entering the house there is an impressive reception hall and doors leading to downstairs shower room/wc, principal bedroom & ensuite, second bedroom and a third bedroom with its own ensuite and kitchenette living area with a door into the storage room (former garage). From the hall stairs rise to the open plan kitchen/dining room area and sitting room with patio doors opening onto the large approx. 22ft x 8ft balcony with a south aspect and panoramic sea views including Selsey Bill to the East, the Isle of Wight to the South West then Portsmouth, the Spinnaker Tower and on down the Solent to the West. The Annexe has a separate entrance hall and doors leading to kitchen/dining/living room and a separate shower room/wc and two further bedrooms. It is understood that the owners significantly remodelled and refurbished both properties in 2021 and 2022. During these works both the Main house and Annexe were fully rewired and re-plumbed with new electric heating, hot water systems, kitchens, bathrooms, cat 5 cabling, TV and WiFi points. In addition significant investment was made in both solar thermal for hot water, solar pv, battery storage and car charging. The house and annexe each have their own of these systems.

THE WITTERINGS

The Witterings are made up of two coastal villages being East and West Wittering both of which are highly desirable villages with a renowned beautiful sandy beach stretching for miles and a long established Sailing club.
