

Thames Avenue, UB6

£595,000

A well-presented 1930s three-bedroom semi-detached home, offering excellent potential for extension into the loft and across the ground floor, as seen with many neighbouring properties. The house benefits from a generous rear garden and is maintained in good decorative order throughout, a wonderful family home.

Set within the popular Medway development it is located less than half a mile from Perivale Station, providing access to the Central line into and across London. The property also offers easy access to the A40 road for routes in and out of the city, along with a selection of well-regarded local schools nearby.
