Description

0.14 Acres of land comprising 5 domestic garages with potential for alternative uses subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents.

Location

The garage site occupies a convenient position on Johnson Crescent in the popular village of Kingsley, Staffordshire Moorlands. Situated on the edge of an established residential area, the site benefits from easy access to local amenities whilst enjoying the character of a sought-after semi-rural village.

Kingsley provides a range of everyday facilities including a village shop, primary school, church and regular bus services, with the nearby market town of Cheadle offering a wider selection of supermarkets, independent retailers, cafés, healthcare facilities and leisure amenities. Stoke-on-Trent is approximately 10 miles to the north-west, providing extensive shopping, employment opportunities and mainline rail services, whilst the A50 and M6 motorway are readily accessible for travel throughout the Midlands and beyond.

The area is well placed for recreation, with the Churnet Valley, Peak District National Park and the popular Alton Towers Resort all within easy reach.

Planning & Supporting Information.

We are not aware of any current or historic planning consents in relation to this site, however there may be potential for alternative uses subject to the necessary planning permission and consents. It is important that prospective purchasers ensure they have inspected the site and rely upon their own enquiries, assessments and due diligence with regards to its current and potential uses.
