The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

We Say...

Set within approximately 0.88 acres of grounds, this versatile terraced home with off-road parking is located in the sought-after village of Cynwyl Elfed. The property enjoys a convenient position with a good range of local amenities nearby and lies approximately 7 miles from the market town of Carmarthen. Offered with no chain, the property can be sold as is, with the option to purchase fully furnished.

This five-bedroom home offers highly adaptable accommodation, ideal for multi-generational living. With four reception rooms, the layout provides excellent flexibility for family life, work, and leisure. Original fireplaces and period features add charm and character throughout.

The grounds are a particular feature of the property, comprising lawns, mature trees, and a wood cabin equipped with electricity, water, and internet, providing space for hobbies, relaxation, or a dedicated home office. A river runs along the boundary of the garden, creating a peaceful natural backdrop, complemented by attractive countryside views. The outdoor space also includes a garage/workshop, storage sheds, and a generous driveway with parking for four to five vehicles.

Beyond the home itself, the property offers significant potential for business use (STPP), with scope for kennels, a cattery, or a market garden, making it a rare opportunity for those seeking a property with lifestyle and income possibilities.

The well-considered layout balances sociable family spaces with private retreats, providing the flexibility to adapt the accommodation as needs change, making this a truly unique home for modern living.

Location

The County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, the Carmarthen Campus of The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English. The former cattle market in the heart of the town has undergone massive regeneration and the new shopping centre now houses most high street names, a Vue Cinema complex, restaurants, bars and a multi-storey car park. The town is also served by direct inter city trains from West Wales to London and Manchester.
