The apartment has a welcoming entrance with a part-glazed door and electric panel heater. A cylinder cupboard houses the Megaflo Heatrea Sadia pressurised tank, with a Newlec Centaur Plus heating control. From the entrance hall, there is access to all main living areas.

The open-plan living/dining kitchen is a generous and inviting space, enjoying views across old and new Kendal, the surrounding roofscape, Kendal Castle and the fells beyond. Double-glazed double doors with full-height side panels open onto a balcony with an outside light. The living area is fitted with a TV aerial point, electric panel heater and provides access via a fold-down wooden ladder to the loft space. The loft is boarded offering ample storage space plus carpeted partitioned area with heat, light and velux window.

The kitchen is towards the rear, enjoys a pleasant aspect onto Low Fellside. It is fitted with an attractive range of wall and base units with concealed downlights, complemented by matching work surfaces, an inset bowl-and-half stainless steel sink with drainer and part-tiled walls. Appliances include a built-in Beko oven, four-ring electric hob with stainless steel cooker hood and extractor, integrated fridge and concealed washing machine.

The principle bedroom is a generous double with open views across the town, featuring double-glazed French doors with full-height side panels that open onto a Juliet balcony. The second bedroom is a comfortable double with a rear aspect and two double-glazed windows.

The modern bathroom comprises a white three-piece suite; with a panel bath and shower over, wash hand basin, and wall-hung WC. It is finished with tiled walls, a heated towel rail, shaver point and downlights.

The development provides private parking spaces for each apartment and the rear paved courtyard serves as a communal garden area. With no upward chain, this apartment represents an excellent opportunity for buyers.
