Property Description
An immaculately presented and deceptively spacious four bedroom link-detached house which was built by Hopkins Homes in 2019, and occupies a corner plot on the eastern edge of Saxmundham within a short walk of the High Street, railway station and Tesco and Waitrose supermarkets. The house, which is centrally heated by gas-fired radiators and benefits from doble glazed windows, offers a versatile range of accommodation. There is an entrance hall and a useful downstairs cloakroom. The double aspect sitting room has an elegant fireplace with an mantelpiece and surround and a wood burning stove. The open plan kitchen/dining room, which is also double aspect, has French doors that open to the garden. The kitchen, which incorporates a utility area, is beautifully appointed and comprises laminated work tops over contemporary base level cupboards and drawers. There is an integrated gas hob with a double electric oven and a dishwasher. There is space for a tall fridge/freezer and plumbing for a washing machine. The kitchen has a tiled floor; the hall, bathroom, en-suite shower room and cloakroom have vinyl flooring. The sitting room and bedrooms have fitted carpets. The first floor bedrooms are well proportioned: three of the bedrooms being double rooms. The second bedroom, which has a vaulted ceiling, is notable for its size. The owners use this space as a first floor sitting room. It could also be used as a large home office. The walled garden faces west and benefits from south sun. The garden is laid to lawn and benefits from a raised sun terrace. There is a courtesy door to the garage and a side gate to the driveway. The property not only benefits from a good-sized single garage, which has power connected, it also has a car port (beneath the second bedroom) providing shelter for a second car. An early inspection is strongly recommended in order to appreciate the style and condition of the property both outside and within
