In Brief

Situated in a prime position within historic Old Portsmouth, Jack House at 120 High Street offers a rare combination of modern 1960s architecture and practical coastal living. Step inside to discover a versatile layout thoughtfully spread over multiple levels, retaining smart original mid-century details alongside light-filled living spaces.

With local pubs, the Camber Dock, and the waterfront just moments from your front door, this home delivers an enviable lifestyle in one of the city's most requested locations.

The property has been tailored for effortless everyday convenience, featuring a substantial garage that provides invaluable off-road parking and extensive storage—a truly prized commodity in Old Portsmouth. The flexible interior layout easily adapts to modern living demands, offering ideal configurations for working from home, hosting guests, or creating dedicated family spaces to suit your lifestyle.

Moving outdoors, the property boasts a low-maintenance private courtyard garden alongside two elevated balconies, creating seamless spots for morning coffee or evening entertaining. Whether taking in the fresh air from the balconies or enjoying a quiet retreat in the secluded courtyard, Jack House presents a wonderfully unique opportunity to secure a substantial, individual home in an iconic setting.
