Crosslands Avenue

Southall, UB2 5QZ

PROPERTY SUMMARY

An excellent opportunity to acquire this spacious and well presented six bedroom family home, ideally situated on the popular Crossland Avenue in the heart of Norwood Green & Southall area..

Offering generous and versatile living accommodation across two floors, this delightful property provides an excellent balance of comfort, practicality and space, making it an ideal choice for growing families and buyers seeking a substantial family residence.

The ground floor features two generously proportioned reception rooms, providing excellent space for relaxing, entertaining and spending quality time with family. To the rear, the impressive extended kitchen and dining area offers an inviting setting for everyday family living, with access to the substantial rear garden.

The property further benefits from six bedrooms arranged across the ground & first floors, offering flexible accommodation for larger families, guests or those requiring a dedicated home office.

The property boasts an exceptionally generous ear garden, ideal for outdoor entertaining, children's activities & relaxation. A substantial outbuilding at the rear provided versatile space, while the front driveway offers convenient off street parking.

A further attractive feature of this family home is the potential to extend into the loft space, subject to the necessary planning permissions.
