The internal accommodation comprises: entrance to the apartment via a staircase leading to the landing, which provides access to the principal rooms. The living room is positioned to the front of the property and features an attractive bay window, allowing natural light into the room. This reception space provides a comfortable area for relaxing, while the separate dining room offers space for a dining table and chairs, creating a distinct area for dining and entertaining.

The kitchen is separately arranged and provides fitted units and work surface space. The bathroom is positioned alongside the kitchen, serving the apartment's two bedrooms and living accommodation. Both bedrooms are accessed from the landing and offer flexibility for use as sleeping accommodation, with the second bedroom also suitable for guests or home working.

The property also benefits from a loft conversion, with a boarded floor, full insulation and plastered finishes. Two double-door cupboards provide additional storage, while the windows contribute to the property's natural light.

Externally, the garden is divided between a patio area and a section of soil, offering space for outdoor seating and planting.
