 NEWTON FALLOWELL

30 Bradegate Drive

Dogsthorpe, Peterborough

This charming one-bedroom end of terraced bungalow offers a comfortable and accessible layout, ideal for those seeking a low-maintenance home with appealing modern touches. The spacious living area is bathed in natural light from large windows, providing a warm and inviting atmosphere. The well-proportioned bedroom features a built-in mirrored wardrobe that maximises storage while reflecting light to enhance the sense of space. The bathroom is thoughtfully designed with modern fixtures, including a sleek sink, wood-effect flooring, and a spacious walk-in shower with a glass enclosure, offering both convenience and style. The kitchen boasts classic wooden cabinetry and is flooded with natural light, with direct access to the garden through a large door, making it a practical hub for every-day living and entertaining.

A standout feature of this property is its impressive outdoor space. The well-maintained front garden, framed by low-maintenance shrubs, creates a welcoming first impression, while communal parking provides essential convenience for residents and guests. The communal rear garden is a true highlight, featuring a lush lawn, mature trees, and a secure fenced perimeter - ideal for outdoor activities, relaxation, and safe play for families or pets. An outdoor storage shed offers additional practicality for tools and equipment. Inside, modern flooring and fixtures throughout add a touch of elegance and ensure ease of maintenance. The property's single-story structure and accessible bathroom (with grab bar) make it suitable for a wide range of buyers, including those seeking step-free living. With its combination of well-designed indoor spaces, generous storage, ample natural light, and attractive gardens, this bungalow offers a rare blend of comfort, privacy, and every-day functionality.
