Wacton Road, Forncett St Peter

Guide Price £1,200,000

7 3 3

The property is believed to have origins back to the 1500s in parts and has been latter extended in the Georgian and Victorian eras, now comprising a fine and impressive country residence. Within the last couple of years, the house has been significantly enhanced and upgraded under the meticulous care of the current owners. Throughout, the property is impeccably presented, showcasing a superb decorative order with well laid-out accommodation and generously proportioned rooms. Over the years careful attention has been given to preserving the character of this period property with enhancements designed to complement its heritage.

The accommodation spans an impressive 6300 sqft offering versatile living space.

Key Features

- Grounds extending to 1.6 acres
- Approx 6,300 sq ft
- Significantly enhanced & extended
- Outbuildings including garaging & garden house
- Tucked away, secluded rural position
- Immense character & charm
- Freehold
- EPC Rating E
- Council Tax Band G
- Oil heating - Private drainage

