LOCATION/AMENITIES

Mallaig is a picturesque fishing port situated on the Westcoast of Scotland which provides a range of shops including a well-stocked supermarket, hotels, bar, cafes, medical centre, primary and secondary schools, modern swimming pool and leisure facilities.

Mallaig has links to Fort William, Oban and Glasgow. The area is well linked by the A82 and has public transport links to places including Edinburgh, Inverness and London. It is easily accessible with regular Caledonian MacBrayne ferry services to Armadale on the Isle of Skye and a daily service to the Small Isles of Canna, Rùm, Eigg and Muck. They also offer a non-landing ticket which allows visitors to cruise the Small Isles. In addition, a local ferry service run by Western Isles Cruises sail daily to Inverie in Knoydart, a beautiful and remote village. They also call (by prior arrangement) at Tarbet a location only accessible by sea. Its Train Station brings in tourists from the Jacobite Steam Train during the summer period. The Jacobite provided the Steam Engine and Carriages for Hogwarts Express as seen in the Harry Potter movies.

The nearest and largest town from Mallaig is Fort William, the main district town of Lochaber and is known as the "Outdoor Capital of the UK". It is popular with those who enjoy stunning scenery, wildlife, walking and outdoor pursuits. There is a variety of shops, pubs and restaurants, a library, cinema, museum, bus and railway station with an overnight sleeper to London.
