This superb three-bedroom extended family home has been vastly improved and updated throughout, offering a high-specification finish with quality flooring, stylish internal doors and modern décor. Situated in a popular cul-de-sac with easy access to the town centre and railway stations, the property is also close to Holyport College and several highly regarded primary schools.

The accommodation comprises; entrance porch leading to a convenient cloakroom & a welcoming hallway featuring bespoke fitted understairs storage cupboards. The beautifully appointed kitchen offers a range of fitted units, integrated appliances and ample worktop space, creating a practical yet stylish heart of the home.

To the rear, the light and spacious living room opens seamlessly into the impressive extension, creating a superb family and entertaining space. A striking roof lantern floods the room with natural light, while bi-fold doors open directly onto the attractive garden, providing an excellent indoor-outdoor lifestyle.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a beautifully fitted bathroom finished to a high standard.

The property has undergone significant upgrades in recent years, including a new kitchen, bathroom, complete re-wire, new boiler & replumbing and replacement radiators throughout.
