Overview

Sitting comfortably on a quiet stretch of Westermoor Drive, with a mature oak giving the frontage a lovely established feel, this is a home that offers rather more than first meets the eye. Three bedrooms, an integral garage, off road parking and a good sized garden are not always easy to find at this level, and for a first time buyer, a young family or an investor looking for a solid rental, it makes a compelling case.

As you step through the front door, the kitchen sits to the front of the house, filled with light from a window overlooking the tree lined street. It's fitted with a generous run of cream units, ample worktop space, a built in oven and gas hob, and there's room for a table if you like to have breakfast where the morning sun lands. A useful cloakroom sits just off the hallway.

To the rear, the sitting room is the real heart of the home. Sliding patio doors open straight out onto the garden, drawing in light across the full width of the room and making it feel considerably larger than the floorplan suggests. It's an easy room to arrange, with space for a proper sofa, a dining table, and the doors thrown open on a warm afternoon.

Moving upstairs, the principal bedroom sits to the front, while the second double looks out over rear garden, bright and quietly private, while the third makes a comfortable single, nursery or home office. The family bathroom completes the first floor, with a panelled bath, shower over and a screen.

Outside

Outside, the rear garden is a genuine asset. Level, lawned and fully enclosed by fencing, it's a safe space for children and dogs, with plenty of room for a shed, a trampoline, raised beds or a patio for al fresco dining. There's a paved area directly outside the patio doors and scope to make far more of it with a little imagination. To the front, a driveway leads to the integral garage, providing secure parking and welcome storage.

Roundswell is a sought after and well established spot, with a Sainsbury's, Costa, pharmacy and retail park close at hand, and excellent access to the North Devon Link Road for Bideford, Tiverton and the M5. Barnstaple town centre, the Tarka Trail and Pilton and Newport schools are all within easy reach, and the surfing beaches of Saunton, Croyde and Woolacombe are a short drive away.
