IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'd step into a home that feels both timeless and carefully preserved, with beautiful original features giving a strong sense of character throughout. The living spaces are bright and welcoming, with that distinctive parquet flooring running underfoot and adding warmth and texture. Large windows bring in plenty of natural light, enhancing the calm, considered feel of the interiors. The original kitchen and cabinetry have been thoughtfully retained, offering something quite special and rarely found, full of charm and quiet nostalgia.

The two bedrooms are well balanced and comfortable, each offering a peaceful place to retreat at the end of the day. The layout is practical and easy to live in, with a natural flow between rooms and a sense of openness throughout. Being on the ground floor, you also have direct access to the communal gardens as well as access to the communal bike shed, a lovely extension of your living space and somewhere to enjoy a slower pace when the weather allows.

WHAT ELSE?

Set within a sought-after Art Deco development, known for its character and architectural charm Wanstead High Street is just moments away, with favourites including The Duke and Gail's Both Wanstead and Snaresbrook stations are within easy reach, offering reliable Central Line connections Being sold chain free, making your move that little bit simpler

A WORD FROM THE OWNER..

"From the moment I stepped inside my flat, I fell in love. As the only flat in The Shrubby to retain all it's original features, it truly is unique and deserves someone who will cherish it as much as I have. One of my favourite things about living here is opening the backdoor and sitting in the garden to have breakfast- a simple pleasure that makes every day special. The Shrubby has a wonderful community spirit, with the high st less than 2 minutes walk, the flat offers charm and convenience. Its a very special place to call home."
