Dorset Street, W1U

A three double bedroom, two bathroom apartment on the raised ground floor of a purpose built block. This interior designed home is presented in turn key condition with a long lease of 999 years from 1991.

The apartment features plantation shutters, herringbone wood floors and bespoke cabinetry. Each room has been meticulously planned with an individual design. The reception-dining room has two windows to the front, bespoke backlit shelving and a feature fireplace. Across the hallway is a sleek modern kitchen with integrated appliances and cupboards utilising the full ceiling height of the room. The main bedroom suite has a wall of built in wardrobes and dressing table and opens to the en suite shower room. The second bedroom is dual aspect, has built in wardrobes and a vanity unit with a period fireplace. There is a third double bedroom, study and main bathroom fully tiled with marble, a roll top bath, WC and two sinks.

Located a short distance from Marylebone High Street and accessible to the green spaces of both Hyde Park and Regents Park. Local Stations are Baker Street and Bond Street.
