A somewhat individual period detached bungalow in a popular and established location, being sold with no onward chain. The property is set back from the road providing plenty of parking and has a small back garden which backs onto the railway line and A3290.

It maybe there is some potential for enlargement if required, possibly by extending forwards or maybe even upwards. This will be subject to all necessary consents.

An excellent first or second time purchase, or investment, or perhaps to downsize to.

The property is within the popular Alfred Sutton Primary and shared Maiden Erlegh Secondary school catchment. It is also within the designated areas of Kendrick Girls and Reading Boys schools.

As well as the local shops nearby there are more extensive facilities in Woodley, and very regular bus services locally provide access into Reading town centre and its railway station on the Paddington, Waterloo and Elizabeth lines.
