Viewing: strictly by appointment through the agent

Occupying a slightly elevated and a generous sized plot, this a spacious and individual five bedroom detached house which offers well proportioned, versatile and substantial living accommodation throughout. It includes a large ground floor area adapted for disabled use which could also be used as a separate annex, family room, or games room. Rodington is a sought after village location, surrounded by beautiful Shropshire countryside, with equally easy access to both the bustling, historic town of Shrewsbury and the facilities in the new and booming town of Telford. The village has a local pub, a parish church and village hall. Despite the peaceful atmosphere, Rodington is a lively and friendly community, offering all the advantages of village life. The A49 and A5 are both within 5 miles of Rodington which provides rapid access to the M54 and motorway network. Early viewing comes highly recommended by the agent, so this most interesting property can be fully appreciated.

The accommodation briefly comprises, the following: Entrance hallway, inner hallway, cloakroom, dining room/sitting room (as required), lounge, kitchen/diner, large ground floor bedroom with wet room (this has been adapted for disabled use but could also be part a great self-contained annex), cellar, first floor landing, master bedroom with en-suite bathroom, three further bedrooms, separate family shower room, substantial front, side and rear enclosed gardens, good sized driveway, double garage, double glazing, oil fired central heating.
