A charming three/four-bedroom Victorian house in a prime Liverpool location

Situated opposite a small open green, this impressive Victorian end-terrace property enjoys a highly sought-after location, just moments from the University of Liverpool and the Royal Liverpool University Hospital. Offering flexible and spacious accommodation, the property is perfectly suited as a lucrative investment opportunity or a substantial family home.

The accommodation comprises three generously sized bedrooms, with a second reception room on the ground floor currently utilised as a fourth bedroom, providing excellent versatility for a range of living arrangements.

Finished to a high specification throughout, the property boasts stylish and contemporary interiors that create an inviting and comfortable living environment. A particular highlight is the stunning, fully tiled family bathroom, featuring a luxurious freestanding bath, a large double walk-in shower, a extra large basin mounted in a vanity unit.
