

Cosser Street, SE1

£600,000

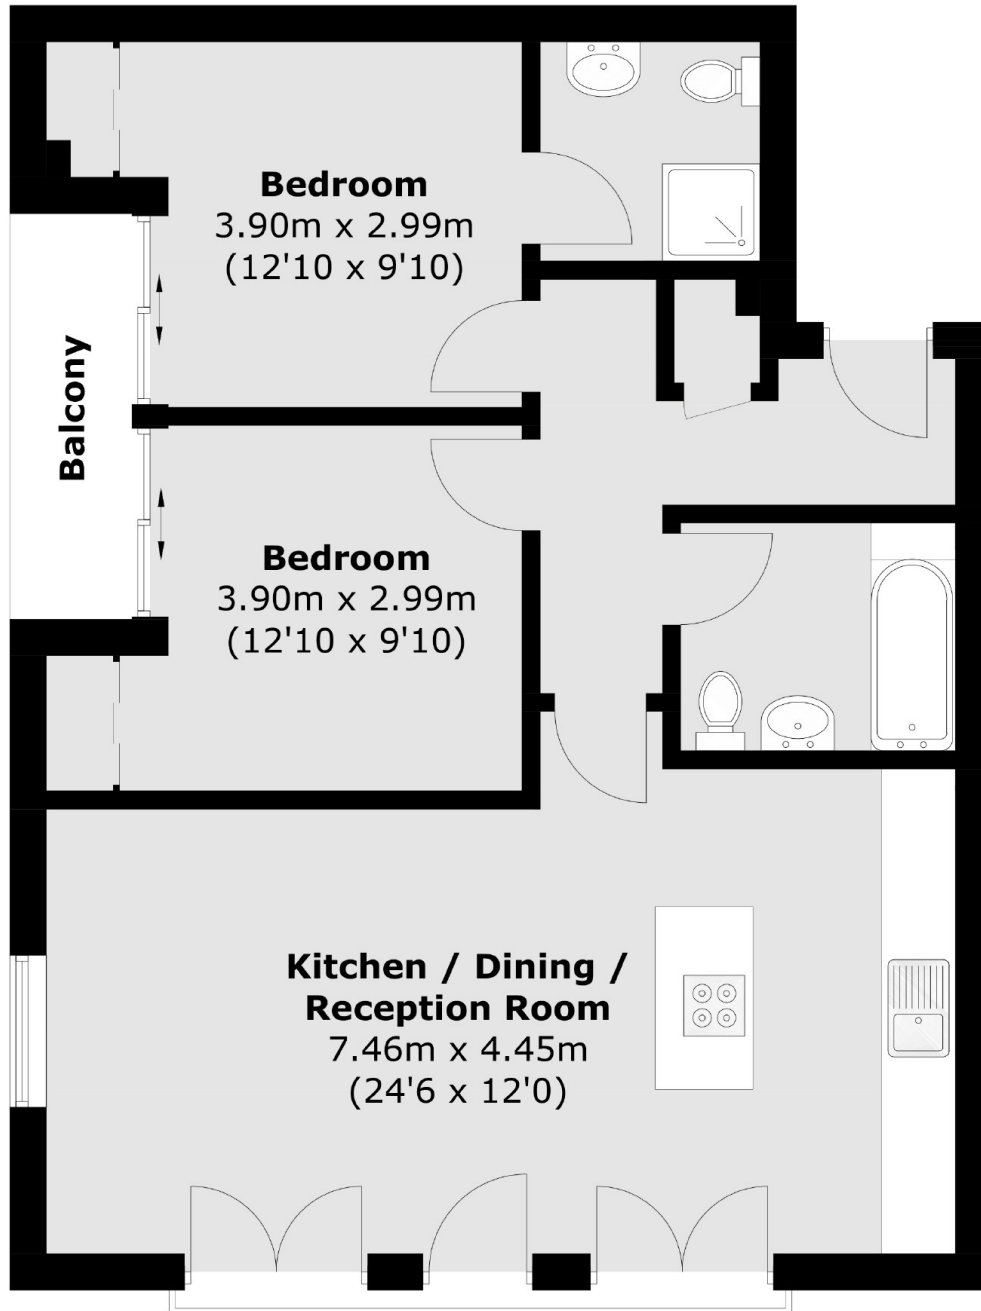

A smart, contemporary apartment featuring a generous south-facing living area bathed in natural light, complemented by a private west-facing balcony ideal for afternoon and evening sun. The property offers two well-proportioned double bedrooms, two modern bathrooms, and excellent built-in storage throughout. Stylishly presented and thoughtfully laid out, it combines comfort and practicality in a bright, airy home.

Cosser Street is enviably located, moments from London Waterloo and Lambeth North stations, the Imperial War Museum, Lower Marsh and The Cut, offering a range of cafés, bars and restaurants and transport links across London. Westminster, Charing Cross and the West End are just a short walk across the river.
