A charming Victorian terraced house, ideally positioned in a sought-after location on the outskirts of Arundel, within easy reach of local amenities including schools, shops, restaurants and pubs. Arundel mainline train station is also within comfortable walking distance.

The property is arranged over three floors and opens into a particularly impressive 24ft living/dining room, featuring an original open fireplace, attractive bay window and useful built-in storage cupboards. The superb modern kitchen is fitted with a range of white base and eye level cabinetry, wooden work surfaces and integrated appliances. A separate seating area for dining or study space, with double doors opening directly onto the rear garden.

On the first floor is a generous double bedroom with fitted wardrobes, together with a stylish modern family bathroom, comprising a roll-top bath, separate shower cubicle, washbasin and WC. The top floor provides a further exceptionally spacious double bedroom, with useful eaves storage and views towards Arundel Cathedral.

Outside, the property benefits from a private long rear garden. The garden is partly laid to lawn, has different seating areas and leads to an insulated summer house at the end of the garden, complemented by mature planting.
