Offers over £545,000

Occupying an enviable position within this quiet, yet centrally located, cul-de-sac in this historic Staffordshire village once frequented by Dick Turpin himself, this expansive family home blends thoughtful design with functional luxurious living. Internally, the light-filled reception rooms—comprising a lounge, sitting room, and conservatory provide welcoming spaces for all seasons. The showpiece kitchen diner, boot room, guest cloakroom and handy adaptable study/playroom elevate convenience and flexibility. Upstairs, five bedrooms await, including a master suite with en-suite shower room and a separate family bathroom. Outside there is professionally landscaped rear garden with patio seating areas, central artificial lawn and stylishly planted raised borders, while the front driveway provides ample 'side by side' parking for a number of vehicles. A peaceful neighbourhood, nearby schools, and impressive local amenities complete this compelling package—a perfect place to call home.

Viewing is essential to appreciate the flawless style and flexible layout of this delightful home and its enviable position within one of the area's most popular villages. Friary School catchment area.
