Exterior and Outdoor Space

Encompassing approximately 2.5 acres, the outdoor space surrounding this remarkable home is nothing short of exceptional. Approached via a long, sweeping tarmac driveway, the property is beautifully set back from the road, creating an immediate sense of grandeur and privacy. The approach is framed by expansive lawns, meticulously maintained and interspersed with mature fruit trees, including apple, pear, and damson, which offer both seasonal charm and a connection to nature. Raised beds provide vibrant colour and texture throughout the year, while hedgerow boundaries lend additional privacy and a timeless country aesthetic.

To the side of the home, a securely enclosed paddock extends the versatility of the land, perfectly suited for small livestock or equestrian use. This area is neatly bordered with timber fencing and offers panoramic views across open fields, making it ideal for those with a passion for outdoor pursuits or a smallholding lifestyle.

The rear garden is a true sanctuary, expertly landscaped to combine function with visual appeal. A substantial stone-paved patio stretches across the back of the home, offering multiple spaces for dining, lounging, and summer entertaining. Raised stone borders overflow with perennial planting and seasonal blooms, creating a riot of colour and texture. Rolling lawns lead to a large, natural pond at the rear, a peaceful water feature surrounded by gravelled pathways and lush planting, attracting birds and local wildlife while providing a serene backdrop for relaxation.

A timber gate connects the front and rear gardens for convenient access, while the property also enjoys easy entry to the double garage, boot room, and outdoor WC. Whether hosting a summer garden party, enjoying outdoor play with family, or simply soaking in the rural tranquillity, this magnificent garden and land setting offers a lifestyle rarely found.
