35 Green Batt, Alnwick

Novelists Cottage, 35 Green Batt, Alnwick, Northumberland, NE66 1TU

Stylish two bedroom stone conversion in the heart of Alnwick town - one of three individual conversions within the attractive old Library building. An ideal main home, second home or holiday let, within walking distance of the shops, cafes/restaurants, Alnwick Playhouse and Gardens - allocated parking for one car in rear courtyard.

Novelists Cottage is a quirky and deceptively spacious, two bedroom conversion in the centre of Alnwick, benefitting from allocated parking and a communal lawned area within an enclosed private courtyard. The property, completed in 2022, has retained many of its original & traditional features including stone mullion windows, exposed internal stonework and an inglenook fireplace, and wood panelling to the walls - the house is perfectly positioned on Green Batt, with the beautiful back drop of St. Paul's Church to the rear. The original building was constructed in 1810 by the 2nd Duke of Northumberland and was originally known as the Jubilee School, commemorating the Golden Jubilee of King George III. It later became known as the Duke's School and was extended between 1887 -1898, eventually closing in 1921, when it then became the town's Library.

Ground floor - Attractive hallway with large storage cupboard | Impressive open plan sitting/dining room with a full height vaulted ceiling incorporating the original stone mullion windows and stone inglenook feature fireplace, and electric Velux windows and blinds - a oak and glass balustrade staircase leads to the first floor galleried bedroom | Well appointed fitted kitchen with excellent natural light from the window and glass atrium roof - integrated appliances include a hob, oven, slimline dishwasher, and fridge/freezer | Ground floor double bedroom | Ensuite shower room/wc.

First floor - Stairs lead up from the sitting room to the first floor galleried bedroom | Double bedroom with enclosed feature mullion windows and Velux window to the roof | Generous ensuite shower room/wc.

Externally - Allocated parking for one car within the courtyard, and a communal grassed open garden area.
