1 Bedroom Flat located in London

A highly desirable and beautifully presented one-bedroom apartment, ideally situated on the sought-after Agar Place in NW1. This spacious property is offered fully furnished and benefits from its own private entrance, providing both convenience and a sense of exclusivity.

The apartment boasts impressive ceiling heights throughout, enhancing the sense of space and light within the large open-plan living area. The reception room seamlessly integrates with a modern, fully equipped kitchen, creating an ideal setting for both relaxing and entertaining.

The generous double bedroom is well-proportioned and thoughtfully furnished with high-end pieces from Soho Home, while the contemporary bathroom is finished to a high standard.

A standout feature of this property is the spacious private patio/terrace, perfect for outdoor dining or unwinding. Residents also benefit from access to a stunning residents' roof terrace, as well as direct access to a beautifully maintained communal square garden, offering rare and tranquil green spaces in the heart of London.
