This delightful two bedroom apartment is situated within a popular development with the benefit of an allocated parking space and communal garden. Set back from the road behind a walled front resident car park is this charming building, converted in recent years. You enter through a communal door where stairs lead you to the apartments entrance on the top floor. You step into a welcoming entrance hall with a useful fitted cupboard for coats/shoes, telephone entry phone and space for furniture. Ahead of you is the open-plan kitchen/living/dining room with smart laminate flooring, space for large sofas along with a table and chairs. The kitchen is well presented, with modern fitted gloss white cabinets at both floor and eye level along with adequate work surface space. Included with the kitchen is a fitted fridge/freezer, fan oven, induction hob with extractor, washer/dryer along with sink with drainer. Both bedrooms are generous sized double rooms, both with thick carpets and with space for bedroom furniture. Completing the apartment is the bathroom which is well presented with smart floor tiles, a bath with shower over, WC, wash basin with storage and mirror above along with heated towel rail and extractor fan. Outside a residents car park offers an allocated parking space along with further visitors parking spaces. There is a 'secret' garden available for residents with a seating area, artificial lawn and mature plants/shrubs.
