Geroldene

Location:

Geroldene is situated in the rural village of Taddington, within the Peak District National Park, surrounded by rolling Derbyshire countryside but with great accessibility onto the A6. Taddington offers a small range of village amenities including two well-regarded pubs, a primary school, and a Church. Nearby towns offer a wider range of facilities including supermarkets, high street shops, eateries, and secondary schools, these being; Bakewell to the east (6.2 miles), Buxton to the west (6.4 miles), and Chapel-en-le-Frith to the north (11.5 miles). There are many nearby local walks and beauty spots direct from the property and throughout the area. Whilst being rural, the cities of Sheffield and Derby are each within an hours commute respectively, offering further transport links and amenities.

Description:

The sale of Geroldene presents a fantastic opportunity, the property offers a two bedroom bungalow on a generous plot in need of some basic internal modernisation but with much potential, a useful integral garage and storage area to the lower ground floor, pleasant lawned gardens and patio areas, and a spacious driveway with off-road parking for multiple vehicles.

The property lends itself to those seeking rural village life with the convenience of the A6 being close-by for commutability, and offers the luxury of being nestled within the Peak District National Park.

Directions:

From Buxton town centre, head east on the A6 and continue for approx. 4.5 miles. Take the second right for Taddington Village and continue straight. The property can be found on the right hand side approx. 100 yards along, indicated by our 'For Sale' board.
