Jodie says:

“From the moment I first walked into this three-storey detached home, I loved how welcoming and spacious it felt. The hallway immediately gives a great first impression and really sets the tone for the rest of the house.

On the left is the living room, one of my favourite spaces! It feels cosy yet spacious, and the patio doors opening into the conservatory make the whole area feel incredibly bright and connected. The conservatory is such a lovely spot to sit with a coffee in the morning or relax in the evening while looking out onto the garden.

To the right of the hallway is the kitchen diner, which truly feels like the heart of the home. The newly fitted kitchen was one of the things that stood out to me straight away! It’s modern, fresh, and really practical, with plenty of space for cooking, dining, and spending time together. I also like how easy it is to head straight out into the garden from here, especially in the warmer months.

The garden itself feels wonderfully private thanks to the mature planting, and it’s a great size without feeling too much to maintain. The patio area has been perfect for outdoor dining and entertaining friends and family.

Having direct access into the garage from the garden has also been incredibly useful, and with the driveway and EV charger already in place, the house feels really well set up for modern living.

Upstairs, the layout works brilliantly, with four genuinely good-sized double bedrooms spread over two floors. The family bathroom is well positioned for busy day-to-day life, while the master bedroom having its own ensuite adds an extra sense of comfort and convenience.

What I’ve always appreciated most about this home is how well it flows; it feels spacious, practical, and easy to live in, while still being warm and welcoming. The newly fitted kitchen and the private garden are particular highlights, and together they make this a home that’s been truly enjoyable to live in!”
