A Flint Fronted Detached Bungalow in a Sought after Location. Having Previously been Extended and Benefitting from a Favoured Southerly Aspect, Private Parking and Garage. Moments from Henfield High Street.

Situation

The Daisycroft is conveniently located just a short walk from the High Street in Henfield village, accessible via several twittens that provide quick access to the shops. The area is known for its 17th and 18th-century architecture and is surrounded on three sides by various Commons, making it a delightful place to live. It offers a range of shopping facilities, inns, cafes, a library, and a post office. Additionally, the Stagecoach bus service connects residents to nearby towns, including Horsham and the city of Brighton, which offer more extensive shopping and leisure options.

Description

'The Daisycroft' is a private development built in the mid-1980s, located just behind Henfield High Street. It offers easy, flat access via pathways & twittens back to the shops. This detached bungalow, features three good-sized bedrooms, has a pretty flint front and is in good condition throughout.

The entrance to the property is on the side and includes a sliding door leading to a porch, which provides convenient storage for coats and shoes to help keep the interior tidy. The galley-style kitchen boasts both high and low mounted storage on two sides, with additional low-level storage on the other, offering plentiful work surfaces.

The first two bedrooms are located at the front of the property and are considered good-sized doubles. One bedroom features a pleasant bay window, while the other has built-in wardrobes. The spacious living area flows toward the rear of the property, benefiting from a southerly aspect. This area connects seamlessly to the conservatory, linking the interior of the home to the rear garden. The low maintenance rear Garden wraps round the property and benefits from being Southerly facing.

The bungalow has been previously extended to include a third bedroom, which comes complete with a dressing area and an en-suite toilet.

Additional features include a large garage with internal access, currently used as a studio or home office space, and a private driveway that accommodates at least two cars.

In our opinion early viewing is essential to appreciate this bungalow in a very sought after location.

Agents Note: - There is a £40 per year charge for the Private Estate
