Location

St Tinney Farm is located in the small hamlet of Otterham, approximately 1 mile from the A39 'Atlantic Highway' which provides excellent access North to the towns of Bude, Bideford and Barnstaple and South to Camelford, Wadebridge and further on down into Cornwall. Camelford is approximately 7 miles and offers a good range of local shops, doctors surgery, dentist and an excellent secondary school. About a mile from the property is Otterham Primary school and Little Otters nursery.

A further 15 miles distant is the ancient capital town of Cornwall, Launceston where you will find a good range of shopping, business and leisure amenities, doctors surgery, dentists, primary and secondary schooling and access onto the A30 dual carriageway which in turn links with M5 motorway at Exeter. The coastal resort town of Bude is about 12 miles whilst the rugged North Cornish coastline is approximately 5 miles with the coastal footpath providing scenic walks.
