OFFERS IN EXCESS OF £550,000

Description Truly one of a kind. Steeped in history and occupying a prominent position in the picturesque village of Myddfai this immaculate and well presented Grade II listed former public house offers an exceptional opportunity to acquire a substantial period property in one of Carmarthenshire's most sought after locations.

The property is well maintained and has been sympathetically refurbished and upgraded by the current owners by combining period features with modern day family living. And yet, despite this renovation the house still exudes character and charm from every nook and cranny - from its large fireplaces and 18th Century bread oven to the vaulted ceiling and stone walls of the 'Top Bar'. The accommodation includes living room, snug, top bar, kitchen, pantry, boot room, office, 2 wc's, and laundry room to the ground floor. Leading to 3 double bedrooms, each with en suite, and an impressive primary bedroom with en suite and dressing room. From the landing is a second staircase leading to a useful attic room. To the rear of the property is a peaceful and beautifully kept private garden and courtyard with sun house providing the perfect setting to enjoy the tranquility of the surrounding countryside.

Located in the picturesque Brecon Beacons National Park and International Dark Sky Reserve the area around is particularly well endowed with wildlife and is ideal for bird watching, hill walking and other country pursuits in this beautiful area. with the market town of Llandovery lying approximately 3 miles away and offers comprehensive shopping facilities including public houses/restaurants, cafes, post office, ice cream parlour, patisserie, cottage hospital, doctors surgery, swimming pool and supermarket just on the outskirts of town.
