Description

This well-presented first floor studio apartment offers bright, contemporary interiors and occupies a pleasant position at the end of this well-regarded cul-de-sac. Uxbridge town centre is within easy reach, offering a wide selection of shops, restaurants and bars, together with Metropolitan and Piccadilly line services. West Drayton Station is also easily accessible, providing Elizabeth line services across London, including direct connections to central London and Canary Wharf.

Accommodation

The accommodation comprises an entrance area with built-in storage, leading into a bright and well-proportioned studio room with ample space for both living and sleeping. The room enjoys an attractive outlook over the communal gardens, with direct access outside.

The modern fitted kitchen features white gloss units and drawers, an integrated fridge/freezer, built-in electric oven and hob, space for further appliances, work surfaces with an inset sink, tiled flooring and a front aspect double-glazed window.

Completing the accommodation is a contemporary shower room with a generous walk-in shower, vanity wash basin, WC, tiled walls and flooring, and a front aspect double-glazed window.

Outside

The building is surrounded by attractive, well-maintained communal gardens, with this particular apartment enjoying the added benefit of direct access from the living space. The property also benefits from an allocated parking space, together with additional visitor parking.

Situation

The property is conveniently situated close to Uxbridge town centre, placing a wide range of shops, restaurants and bars within easy reach, together with Uxbridge Underground Station and its Metropolitan and Piccadilly line services. Brunel University, Hillingdon Hospital and Stockley Park are also nearby, while West Drayton Station is easily accessible, providing Elizabeth line services into central London. Excellent road connections also provide convenient access to Heathrow Airport, the M4 and M25.
