

130 Chesterton Road,

Fixed Price £650,000

 2  1  1

A gorgeous, light-filled two-bedroom flat set on the raised ground floor of a handsome period conversion, where high ceilings and original detailing do the heavy lifting, the flat also benefits from a share of freehold. This is one of those homes that feels good the moment you walk in—proper proportions, elegant finishes, and bags of character without trying too hard.

Key Features

- Raised ground floor, two double bedroom flat set within a handsome period conversion
- Share of freehold, offering long-term security and added appeal
- Two generous bedrooms with good built-in storage
- Moments from Portobello Road and the heart of Notting Hill
- Surrounded by top cafés, restaurants, green spaces and creative West London energy
- Bright reception room with bay window, high ceilings, cornicing and wood floors
- Stylish open-plan kitchen, perfect for entertaining and everyday living
- Well-presented bathroom and excellent overall layout
- Ladbroke Grove Underground Station close by, with fast links via Paddington Station
- Oli and Liana are delighted to be instructed on this fabulous property, please watch the video and book a viewing.

