The location

Treverva Farm offers an exceptional lifestyle opportunity within some of south Cornwall's most picturesque countryside. Set on the north side of the renowned Helford River, celebrated for its unspoilt creeks and temperate microclimate, this wonderful and versatile property enjoys a rare blend of tranquillity, natural beauty and convenience.

Surrounded by rolling pastures, the property is perfectly placed near the serene hamlets of Treverva and Polwheveral, while the thriving and much-loved village of Constantine lies just minutes away. Here, residents enjoy an exceptional array of local amenities, including an award-winning village store and wine merchant, a popular gastro-pub, a doctors' surgery, a community arts centre at the Tolmen Centre and a welcoming café within the village church.

Just a short distance away, Potager Garden presents a unique and environmentally conscious dining experience, nestled within a beautifully reimagined garden and showcasing seasonal, home-grown produce. For maritime enthusiasts, the charming village of Port Navas provides excellent mooring facilities and access to the Helford's sheltered waters.

The vibrant harbour town of Falmouth, renowned for its sailing culture, beaches and lively arts scene, is also within easy reach. Offering an outstanding selection of independent shops, restaurants, museums and educational facilities, Falmouth provides the ideal complement to Treverva's rural charm.
