

Bedrooms: 3 | Bathrooms: 1 | Receptions: 1

A spacious three-bedroom semi-detached home offering well-proportioned living accommodation, pleasantly situated in a quiet area of Milkwall and within easy reach of scenic woodland walks. The property is offered for sale with no onward chain.

Milkwall is a popular village offering a peaceful setting with everyday amenities including a local shop, primary school and public house, while also benefiting from easy access to woodland walks and open countryside. Nearby towns provide a wider range of shopping, leisure and transport links, making it an attractive and well-connected location.

You enter the property directly into the kitchen-diner, a welcoming and sociable space that immediately gives a strong sense of how the home is used day to day. The kitchen area is well laid out with units arranged to both sides, providing generous worktop space and plenty of storage while keeping everything within easy reach. Integrated appliances sit neatly alongside space for freestanding white goods, and a window over the sink draws in natural light, making the room feel bright and practical for everyday cooking.

The kitchen flows seamlessly into a defined dining area, where there is ample room for a good-sized table and chairs, comfortably accommodating family meals or entertaining guests. This area feels open yet clearly zoned, with space for additional furniture such as a dresser or sideboard, adding both character and storage. A rear door provides convenient access outside, while also allowing further light into the room, enhancing the sense of openness.

From the kitchen, a door leads through to the inner hallway, where stairs rise neatly to the first floor and access is provided to the main living room. The living room is a warm and inviting space, well proportioned to comfortably accommodate a range of furniture layouts. There is ample room for two generous sofas, creating a relaxed and sociable setting that works equally well

