SITUATION & AMENITIES

The buildings enjoy an idyllic, timeless and tranquil rural position, which is remote but not isolated, approached by a 'no-through' track. At the same time, the centre of the village is about ¾ mile and this offers an excellent public house – the Exeter Inn – which also serves food, a good community shop, church and village hall. On the Southern edge of the village is the Mole Resort, with its impressive leisure facilities. The local market town of South Molton is about 6 ½ miles and offers an excellent range of amenities and shops, including a Sainsbury's supermarket and schooling to secondary level. The regional centre of Barnstaple – with its larger commercial venues – is about 13 miles and the Cathedral City of Exeter about 28 miles. A local rail link is available on the regular service between Barnstaple and Exeter on the Tarka Line at Portsmouth Arms station (2.7 miles). Both Exmoor and Dartmoor National Parks are within easy reach by car, as is the renowned North Devon coastline. The area is well served by excellent state and private schools including the reputable West Buckland school.
