Angel Cottage is a charming, Grade II listed, semi-detached home situated at the very heart of the historic village of Grosmont with the renowned village pub located next door, the magnificent Town Hall nearby and with the medieval 13th century castle and church of St Nicholas just a stone's throw away makes Angel Cottage an integral part of the long and fascinating history of the village. The property provides generous, comfortable accommodation with potential for further modernisation and development. Two separate properties originally, it was extended and converted into one home in the 1970's. It now includes a central hallway, small snug/office with bay window and cast iron range, separate sitting room with bay window and open fireplace, large open plan kitchen/dining area and a rear porch. There are three first floor bedrooms and a bathroom including a shower cubicle plus a separate toilet. The master bedroom enjoys a stone and timber constructed balcony accessed through sliding doors along the rear and takes full advantage of the beautiful southerly outlook across the surrounding countryside towards Graig Syfyrddin. Of huge benefit is an attached garage and hayloft with adjoining garden store and a small but pretty cottage garden to the rear.

SITUATION | The ancient Monmouthshire village of Grosmont is renowned for its historic 13th Century church and castle, and its well-regarded sense of community. The village is a protected conservation area situated close to the border with England, between the Brecon Beacons National Park and the Wye Valley. These areas are well known for their outdoor pursuits including hill walking along the undulating countryside with the local Three Castles Walk, a circular walk of approximately 19 miles linking the medieval castles of Grosmont, Skenfrith and White Castle passing through the village and then slightly further afield, the famous Offa's Dyke pathway as well as the Monnow Valley walk, plus for sports enthusiasts, cycling along the national cycle route and canoeing on the Rivers Usk and Wye.

For more comprehensive shopping and leisure facilities the nearest towns with approximate distances are: Abergavenny (9 miles), Monmouth (12 miles), the Cathedral

City of Hereford (15 miles) and Ross on Wye (12 miles) are all easily accessible by car and boast many high-street shops, supermarkets and independent boutiques as well as restaurants and cafes. The area is well served for schools for all ages in both the state and private sector with the nearest primary being in Cross Ash, just 2 miles away. A school bus service picks up for schools in both Monmouth and Abergavenny.

Abergavenny railway station provides services to central London and Bristol via Newport as well as Cardiff, Manchester and Hereford. Road links via the A465 (3 miles) provide access to the motorway and "A" route network, giving access to Cwmbran, Newport, Cardiff and West Wales as well as Bristol, London and the Midlands.
