THE PROPERTY

A well-presented cottage set within a working farm yard development situated in the rural village of Fifehead Magdalen.

The property benefits from a wealth of character features in particular the living area with its exposed beams. There are three good sized bedrooms (two on the ground floor and one on the first floor) and both a family bathroom and separate shower room. The first floor bedroom benefits from far reaching countryside views.

DIRECTIONS

OUTSIDE

The property has parking to the front and an enclosed courtyard garden to the rear.

SITUATION

The property is situated in a courtyard setting of similar properties and surrounded by farmland in the village of Fifehead Magdalen. The close by village of Marnhull is one of the largest villages in England with a thriving community life and is celebrated in Thomas Hardy's Tess of the D'urbervilles. The village has two public houses, three churches, doctor's surgery, pharmacy, butcher, post office, hairdresser and beauty salon, many clubs and societies and is surrounded by beautiful countryside. There are primary schools in the village with secondary education at Sturminster Newton. There are a number of footpaths leading into the open countryside.
