About the property

This two-bedroom terraced home in Brynglas, Penydarren offers an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers or investors, benefiting from no onward chain and neutral décor throughout.

Set over two floors, the property is conveniently located close to local amenities including nearby schools and everyday services, while transport connections such as the A465, A470 and regular local bus links provide easy access for commuting and travel.

The accommodation includes a welcoming living space and kitchen and bathroom on the ground floor, with two double bedrooms situated on the first floor. The neutral presentation provides a comfortable base that is ready to move into or further personalise to suit individual taste.

Outside, the property features a rear garden along with the added advantage of a garage, offering useful storage or parking options.

This well-located home presents a practical and appealing opportunity in a popular residential area.
