IF YOU LIVED HERE...

A bright and well-proportioned home, the heart of the apartment is the generous open-plan kitchen, lounge and diner, stretching to just under twenty feet. There is plenty of room here to relax or work from home, with pale flooring, simple finishes and wide doors opening to the balcony adding to the calm, uncluttered feel.

The private south-facing balcony is a lovely extension of the living space and brings in an extra sense of openness. It offers a quiet spot for morning coffee or an evening breather, while the bedroom is set separately from the main living area, with plenty of wardrobe storage. The bathroom sits just off the hall, making the space feel straightforward and easy to live in.

Overall, this is a well-sized apartment with a natural balance between simplicity and comfort.

WHAT ELSE?

Acme Fire Cult, The Dusty Knuckle and Little Duck The Picklery are all close by, giving you some excellent local options when you want to eat out or pick up something special.

Hackney Downs Park is moments away, so you have proper green space nearby for a walk, a run or a slower start to the weekend.

Dalston Kingsland and Hackney Downs stations are both within easy reach, and bus routes from Kingsland Road run directly into Central London.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I feel right at home living in Hackney, even though I am originally from Greece. You can be yourself, wear what you like and always feel welcome. The multicultural spirit shines through in the cafés, restaurants, shops and bars. From specialty coffee and Michelin star dining to parks and art galleries, Hackney has something for everyone. Weekends at Victoria Park or Broadway Market are full of community energy, great food and local makers. The marshes are ideal for dog walks, and nearby you can stop by the Princess of Wales for a Sunday roast, Here East for brunch or Crate Brewery for pizza and a local beer. Homes range from Victorian and Georgian houses to red brick local authority blocks and modern developments with shared roof terraces. I have truly found my place in Hackney, and it holds a special spot in my heart".
