Flat 2, Napier Terrace, Mutley, Plymouth
Plymouth

£135,000

Located just off the popular Mutley Plain shopping district this extremely well presented, ground floor apartment offers spacious well-appointed accommodation.

Entering the communal entrance, the separate entrance leads through to the hallway; with neutral decoration and carpeting found throughout.

The main living accommodation located at the front of the property with a large bay window, original stained glass, and a large open plan area for living and dining leading through to separate kitchen area with vinyl effect flooring.

The kitchen area with low level base mounted and wall mounted units in Shaker style with rolled edge worksurfaces over incorporating stainless steel sink with drainer, integral gas oven with gas hob above and extractor fan and ample space for white goods under.

The family bathroom is fitted with a neutral suite comprising low-level WC, pedestal wash handbasin, panelled bath to one side with mixer shower attachment over. The room is finished with attractive contemporary styled flooring and walls.

The two bedrooms are both double with the second bedroom also offering a door giving separate access to a small, shared courtyard and gate accessing the side of the property.

There is a good-sized storage area under the stairs and the property benefits from part PVC double glazing and gas central heating and an internal viewing is highly recommended.
