Paddock Wood TN12 6FR

This beautifully presented four-bedroom detached home, built just five years ago and benefiting from the remainder of its NHBC warranty, is set within a well-planned modern development known for its peaceful atmosphere, attractive streetscape and strong sense of community. Designed for contemporary living, the property offers an excellent balance of style, comfort and practicality, making it ideal for families, professionals and commuters alike. Its close proximity to a mainline station provides convenient travel links, while the development offers a calm and welcoming environment.

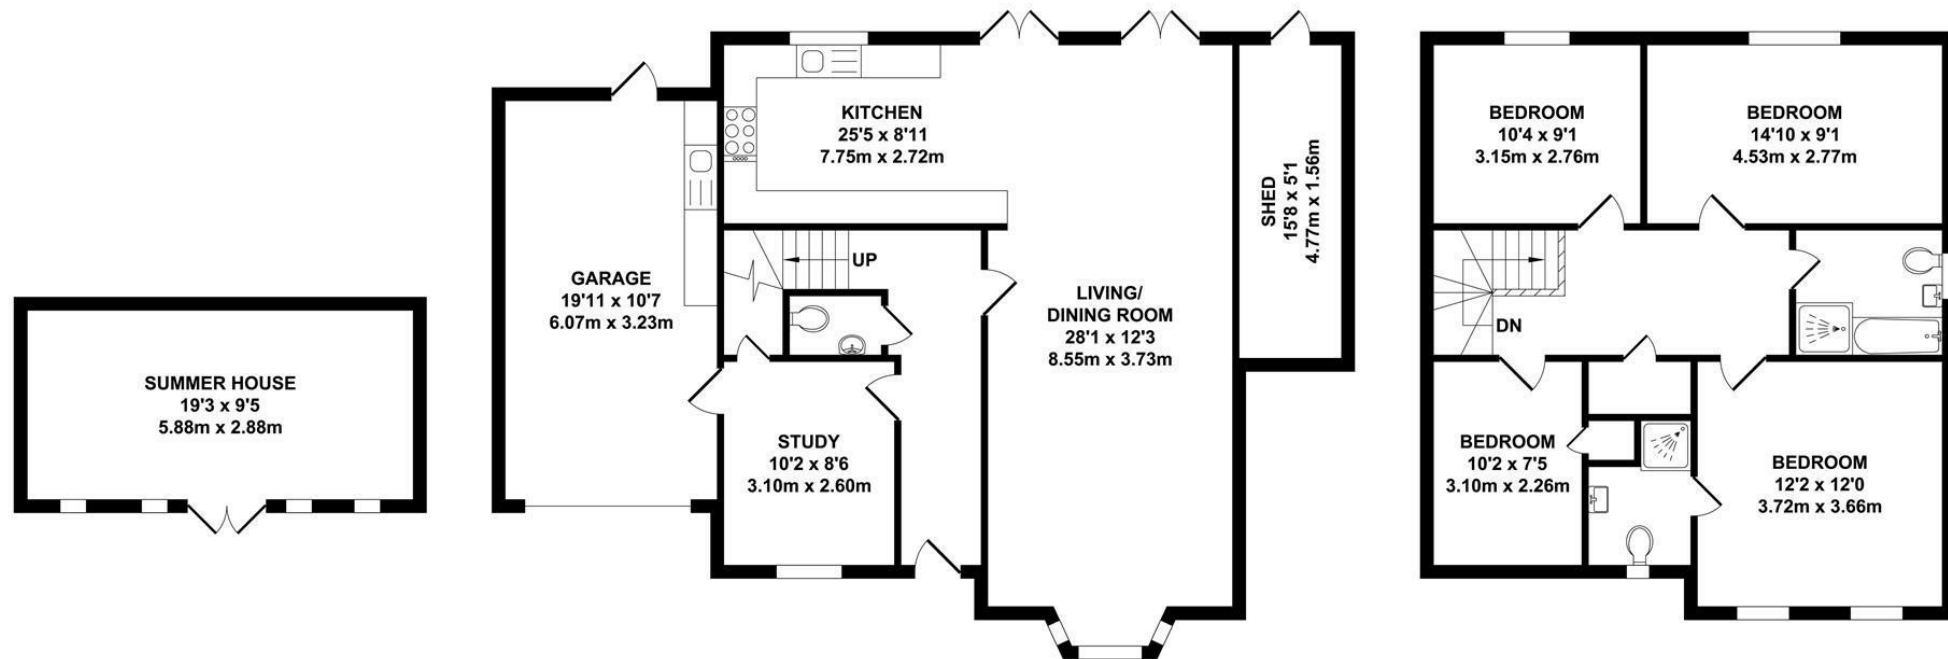

Inside, the home features four spacious double bedrooms, all enjoying good natural light and generous proportions, providing flexibility for family living, guests or home working. The heart of the property is its open-plan living space, seamlessly connecting the lounge, dining area and modern kitchen. This layout creates a natural flow, perfect for everyday living and entertaining. The décor throughout is fresh and modern, with clean lines, quality finishes and a bright, airy feel.

A particular highlight is the large multi-purpose garden room, offering exceptional versatility. Suitable for use as a home office, studio, gym, playroom or relaxing garden lounge, this space enhances the home's adaptability and can be enjoyed year-round.

Additional benefits include an attached garage providing secure parking and storage, with potential for further use if required. The private rear garden is well-proportioned and ideal for outdoor dining, entertaining or family enjoyment.
