This well-designed two-bedroom apartment sits on the third floor of Craneford House at Twickenham Square, offering high specifications and strong energy credentials.

Finished to a high standard throughout, the home features a thoughtfully proportioned layout with underfloor heating across every room for consistent year-round comfort. The open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area showcases luxury wood-effect flooring, contemporary units, and integrated Siemens appliances. Large windows draw in abundant natural light, while sliding doors open onto a private balcony to extend the living space outdoors. Clean lines define both bedrooms, with the principal room featuring fitted wardrobes.

Rated EPC: B, this future-proof new-build provides lower running costs—roughly 20% cheaper than an average older property—alongside a reduced environmental footprint.

Residents of Craneford House benefit from lift access throughout the building, secure cycle storage, and tranquil, landscaped communal gardens. Situated moments from Twickenham High Street, the development places independent cafés, restaurants, and local shops within easy reach. Nature lovers can easily enjoy the vast green expanses of nearby Richmond Park and Bushy Park. Commuting is effortless with Twickenham Station just a nine-minute walk away, offering direct rail links to London Waterloo in approximately 20 minutes, while the nearby A316 ensures straightforward road connections across South West London and beyond.
