18 James Street is a modern five-bedroom property which can be found in a fantastic location just off of Bangor's Main High Street. This property is spread over three floors and has been recently renovated throughout. The property has a large open plan Kitchen and living area perfect for the whole house to get together in. Three of the bedrooms have double beds and two with singles, all of them will contain a desk, chair and storage furniture. There are two full bathrooms in the property, conveniently situated on the middle and top floor ensuring easy access for everyone in the house. 18 James Street is just a 12-minute walk to the main University building and a two-minute walk away from a variety of shops, bars and restaurants.
