Property Description

Located in the charming area of Plumbland, this semi-detached house offers comfortable and well-proportioned living accommodation, comprising two double bedrooms and one single bedroom, along with two bathrooms and two reception rooms.

The property features a kitchen-diner, providing ample space for both dining and meal preparation. The kitchen enjoys pleasant views over the garden. The reception rooms are generously sized, offering flexibility for use as living, dining, or family spaces.

Externally, the property benefits from off-road parking, providing convenience for vehicle owners, along with a garden that offers an enjoyable outdoor space suitable for relaxation or gardening. The property also enjoys attractive views across open countryside and towards the Solway Firth, with vistas extending across to Scotland.

The bedrooms include two good-sized doubles and a single bedroom, offering flexibility for families, guests, or home working. The bathrooms are fitted with standard fixtures, ensuring practicality and comfort.

Prospective purchasers should note that the property previously had faulty cavity wall insulation installed. This has now been removed; however, some remedial works remain to be completed both internally and externally.

Situated near Wigton, Cumbria, the property enjoys a peaceful semi-rural setting while remaining accessible to local amenities. The surrounding area is well regarded for its scenic countryside and strong sense of community.

Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) details are available upon request.

This property represents an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a spacious home in a desirable rural location, with scope to complete the remaining improvement works to their own specification.
