Location

This non-estate setting is central to the village Post Office store and the much respected Gwinear CP Primary School, both of which are within, what for many, will be a short walk. Gwinear itself is a popular rural community hidden away from the summer 'hubbub' and yet less than 4 miles off the A30 and a similar distance to the many and varied shopping, schooling and health facilities in the old harbour town of Hayle. A quarter of an hour drive away are the golden sands of Towan Beach and the lighthouse at Godrevy, a highly regarded surfing venue. Closer to hand, 3 miles away, is Camborne where in addition to a much larger variety of supermarkets, schools and facilities is a stop on the main Paddington to Penzance railway line.
