

252, Western Road

Sheffield, S10 1LF

Description

Nestled in the desirable area of Crookes, Sheffield, this remarkable semi-detached house on Western Road is a splendid example of late 19th-century architecture, built from Yorkshire stone in 1890. Spanning an impressive 1,518 square feet across four storeys, this property offers a unique blend of period charm and modern convenience, making it an ideal family home.

As you approach the house, you will appreciate its set-back position from the road, complemented by a gated entrance. Entering through a beautifully crafted stained glass side door, you are welcomed into a ground floor landing featuring an elegant wooden railed staircase that connects all levels. The first floor boasts a stunning lounge, illuminated by a large bay window, which showcases a feature fireplace complete with a newly installed log burner, perfect for cosy evenings. A second reception room provides a tranquil retreat, offering views over the lush rear garden and another original fireplace to admire.
